At City PC Repairs, we've spent more than 20 years keeping Edinburgh's tech running smoothly, from work-horse office PCs to prized gaming rigs and cherished Apple Macs. Bring us your desktop, laptop, PlayStation 5, Xbox Series X or Nintendo Switch and we'll diagnose the fault the same day, free of charge, before issuing a transparent, fixed-price quotation. If we can't put things right, you don't pay—our industry-leading “no-fix, no-fee” pledge gives you complete peace of mind. All repairs are carried out in-house by seasoned engineers in our dedicated Leith workshop, never shipped off to faceless depots. We've invested heavily in a certified clean-room environment, letting us tackle delicate data-recovery work on hard drives, SSDs, SD cards and even iPhones that others write off as “unrecoverable”. Combine that with board-level soldering skills and genuine manufacturer parts and you get repairs that last—delivered fast, affordably and, where required, with free local collection and return. Whether you’re a home user staring at the “blue screen of doom”, a solicitor racing against a case deadline, or a parent with a console-mad teenager, our promise is the same: a friendly welcome, straight-talking advice and a fixed cost agreed up-front. No surprise add-ons, no jargon, just honest workmanship backed by thousands of successful fixes across the capital. Drop in to 14 Elgin Terrace, call 0131 661 9591 or book online today and discover why our free evaluation and fixed-price ethos has become the gold standard for computer repairs in
